The will was probated March 28, 1786. William Gill lived in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1790. in Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred served. Death and burial information for William Gill Jr. or Sr. have not been found.⁸

Arthur Hazzard, Private, Hall's Regiment, 1777 - 1782

Arthur Hazzard served as a Private in Hall's Regiment, enlisting on March 21, 1780. He was present at muster on May 2, 1780 at Christiana Bridge DE, and sick in Hillsborough NC in December 1780. His service record contains a note that he was reported as a deserter in September 1780 and a later note that this was an error and that he died September 10, 1782. This was also an error as shown below.

Arthur Hazzard was granted a pension for his service as a resident of Ohio effective June 13, 1818. According the declaration of Arthur Hazzard dated June 1, 1818 he enlisted in Hall's Regiment in April 1777 and he served until 1783. He claimed he was at the battles of Charleston and Little York. Stephen Atkins made a declaration that he served with Arthur Hazzard and that they were discharged at Lewestown. The office of the Secretary of State of Delaware confirmed that Arthur Hazzard served beginning in May 1777 and that he appeared in a roll dated September 1780 and another roll dated March 1782. This evidence support the conclusion that the service record is in error regarding his death in 1782.

No evidence has been found for the burial of Arthur Hazzard.¹¹

John Jackson, Peery's Company

There were 2 John Jacksons from Delaware who served in the Revolutionary War. The first John Jackson was a private in Hall's Regiment, enlisting in 1778 and serving until 1781. This John Jackson received a pension for his service in the Revolutionary War, and his declaration in support of his application for a pension refers only to service in Hall's Regiment from 1778 to 1782. Since the amount paid was based in part of length of service, it would have been in his interest to claim additional service in Peery's Company if he had served in that company. His declaration also mentions that he lived near Dover in Kent County DE. A document in his pension file records that he died in 1823.

In the Reconstructed 1790 Census of Delaware, there are 2 John Jacksons: one in the Murderkill Hundred near Dover, and the other in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred. Perry's Company was based in Lewes. John Jackson is identified as a Pilot in a Testamentary Bond dated June 29, 1789. This was likely John Jackson of Lewes and Rehoboth given his occupation. The evidence supports the conclusion that the John Jackson who served in Peery's Company was a resident of Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred. The military records of Delaware indicate that there were 2 different men named John King, and that only one of them – John King of Hall's Regiment - had enough service credit to be entitled to a certificate of depreciation (which yielded payments to the soldier after the war).

According to the DAR Ancestor database, the John King who served in Hall's Regiment was a resident of Lewes. The John King who served in Peery's Company was a resident of Broadkill Hundred. There were men named John King enumerated in Broadkill and Lewes in 1800 and in 1820. There were also 2 probate records for men named John King in Sussex County after 1820. John Rowland served as a Private in Colonel Hazen's Regiment in 1777. He enlisted in May 1777 and was reported to have been taken prisoner on August 22, 1777. purchased land on Pagans Creek in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1783. This land adjoined land of Peter Fretwell Wright, a resident of Lewes. Pagans Creek is now known as Canary Creek. He was a resident of the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1800. He was enumerated near Thomas Rowland on the census schedule. The oldest male in this household was age 26 – 44. He later moved to Pickaway County Ohio where he died in 1850.³⁶

He was taxed in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1778 and 1779. He was a resident of the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1790. Thomas Rowland Sr. is identified as a resident of the Pilottown in the Town of Lewes in a 1796 deed selling land there. Thomas Rowland Jr. was a resident of the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1800. The oldest male in this household was age 45 and older. No record for the burial of Thomas Rowland has been found.³⁷

Robert Shankland, Ensign, Patterson's Flying Camp, 1776

Robert Shankland served as an Ensign in Patterson's Flying Camp. His name appears on a roster dated November 14, 1776 at Port Amby, NJ. Robert Shankland was tazed in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1780. He was a resident of Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1790. He is identified as a resident of the Town of Lewes in a 1796 deed.

The estate of Robert Shankland was probated May 31, 1814. The administrator of his estate was Caleb Rodney. No heirs were identified. His house and lot bounding on Market Street and Second Street in Lewes was sold to pay debts of the estate. The purchaser of the house was John Rodney, who lived next door. No information on his burial has been found.³⁸

Jonathan Smith, Private, Latimer's Company, 1776

Jonathan Smith served as a private in Latimer's Company stationed in Lewes DE in 1776. His wife was named Hester. Jonathan Smith died in 1788. In his probate record, he was identified as a pilot. Two of the witnesses to his will – Caleb Rodney and Elizabeth Saunders, were residents of Lewes. The co-executors of his estate were his wife Hester Smith and William West, who was identified as a pilot in deed records. Jonathan Smith died prior to May 1788. The fact that Jonathan Smith is identified in his probate record as a pilot, an occupation common in the Town of Lewes, and that 2 of the witnesses to his will were residents of Lewes, and that one of his executors was William West pilot of Lewes, provides support for the conclusion that Jonathan Smith was a resident of Lewes. No information on the burial of Jonathan Smith has been found.³⁹

Prettyman Stockly, Private, Peery's Company, 1777

Prettyman Stockly served as a Private in Captain Peery's Company stationed in Lewes DE in 1777. He enlisted May 7 and was present at muster in Lewes on June 2. Prettyman Stockly purchased land on Shankland Island in Lewes Creek in 1778. His estate was probated in 1790. The administrator was Ann Stockly. No information on his burial has been found.⁴⁰

William Thompson, Private, Latimer's Company, 1776

William Thompson served as a Private in Latimer's company in 1776. He enlisted on April 20, 1776. There were 2 men named William Thompson in Sussex County in 1790. One William Thompson lived in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred. There was also a father and son named William Thompson living in Dagsborough Hundred in 1790. These two men were the son and grandson of James Thompson and were named in James Thompson's will, probated in Sussex County DE, dated November 4, 1789. James Thompson was also listed as a resident of Dagsborough Hundred in 1790.

What evidence can be found to determine which William Thompson served in the Revolutionary War? The William Thompson who lived in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred purchased land in the Town of Lewes in 1798. The estate of a William Thompson had a probate date of April 22, 1812. The estate was administered by James Thompson, who was also a resident of the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1790. The witnesses were Henman Rhoads and Robert West. Robert West was a merchant residing in the Town of Lewes and Henman Rhoads was a farmer residing in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred. The evidence indicates that this William Thompson was the man who served in Latimer's Company.

William Thompson Jr. and William Thompson Sr. are both found in a Revolutionary War Service Record as serving the 2nd Delaware Militia based in New Castle County. This record indicates that both William Sr. and William Jr. were absent from a muster on August 3, 1778. This is likely the father and son William Thompsons from the Dagsboro Hundred. William Thompson Sr.'s will was probated in Sussex County DE on November 27, 1807. This will names a son William Thompson as an heir, indicating that this is the father-son William Thompsons of Dagsboro Hundred. The scant information found for William Sr.'s and William Jr.'s service indicates their service may not have been honorable, although it is fairly common for soldiers to be listed as absent or even listed as deserters and later to be reported to have returned to their units. The evidence found supports the conclusion that the William Thompson who served in Latimer's Company in 1776 was a resident of Lewes Town.⁴¹

Marnix Virden, Corporal, Haslet's Regiment, 1776

Marnix Virden served as a Corporal in Haslet's Regiment. He enlisted in January 16, 1776 and was present at muster at the barracks in Lewes DE on April 11, 1776. Marnix Virden and Marnix Virden Jr. were taxed in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1778. Marnix Virden was taxed in the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred in 1779. Marnix Virden was also taxed in the Broadkill Hundred in 1779. In 1780, Marnix Virden was taxed in Lewes and Rehoboth and Broadkill Hundreds. Marnix Virden married Hannah Reynolds in Lewes DE on January 25, 1781. In the 1790 Reconstructed Census, the name Marnix Virden appears in both Broadkill and Lewes and Rehoboth Hundreds. Marnix Virden purchased 100 acres of land, part of a larger parcel known as Tower Hill in the 'Lewes Hundred' in 1784. Marnix Virden appears in the 1800 census of Broadkill Hundred.

Two probate records were found for Marnix Virden. The first had a probate date of April 15, 1796. This record identifies Marnix Virden as being a resident of the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred. The executors were his wife Lydia and his brother William. His heirs included 3 daughters and 7 granddaughters. The second probate record for Marnix Virden has a probate date of February 11, 1803 and the administer was Mary Virden, likely his wife. Based on the evidence, a reasonable hypothesis is that the Marnix Virden who died in Lewes and Rehoboth in 1796 was the father of the Marnix Virden who lived in Broadkill Hundred in 1800. Which one was the Revolutionary War soldier cannot be definitively determined from the evidence, but the earliest evidence of residence – the 1778 tax record - indicates that Marnix Virden was a resident of the Lewes and Rehoboth Hundred shortly after his service in the war in 1776.⁴²

In a 1790 deed, Abraham Wiltbank is identified as a resident of Sussex County and as a Pilot. This deed conveyed 2 acres and 31 perches of land on Pilottown Road to Ship Carpenter David Johnson. A map image of this property contained in the land records is shown below:

The author of this report has found numerous examples of Revolutionary War soldiers reported at some point to be missing or as deserters who were later determined to have been missing with just cause. One remarkable example of this phenomenon is found in the Revolutionary War Pension File of Oliver Farmer of MA and NH. The author's research report on Oliver Farmer is available on the NH Patriots page at www.forgottenpatriots.org.
